The district has the primary responsibility for ensuring compliance with applicable state and federal laws and regulations providing educational programs to bring allegations of unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and complaints alleging violation of state and federal laws providing educational programs. The district will investigate and seek to resolve complaints using policies and procedures known as the Uniform Complaint Procedure. Mrs. María Jiménez (EMHS) asked if it is possible to send an email to either the counselor or the teacher. Mrs. Linda Rosales (ELC) answered yes, and suggested they put the student's name and ID number in the subject line of the email, as this will catch the recipient's attention and they will receive a response sooner.

Mrs. Linda Rosales (ELC) reviewed the four steps to assess a student's readiness for reclassification during the 2023-2024 school year. She informed that last year there was a change (step 3) that, starting this year, if a student receives a "C" or better in English for the previous two of three semesters, parents/guardians will be notified of their rights to participate in the reclassification process.

6. Review and comment on the written notifications [I-EL2.1(a)]

- a.) Parent Notification of Reclassification – Mrs. Linda Rosales (ELC) reported that the notification can be sent via ParentSquare, or by phone, but a letter is always sent by mail. Several members suggested that English teachers inform students about the importance of the ELPAC exam, and also suggested offering incentives to students to help them make an effort to score a good percentage on the exam. Mrs. Linda Rosales (ELC) said that they are good suggestions and she will work on it. Mrs. Linda Rosales (ELC) asked the members if they agree that the district start sending either at the beginning of the school year, or at the beginning of the school year, a letter to parents by mail and/or through students, informing about the reclassification; the members agreed.
- b.) Consent Form – Mrs. Linda Rosales (ELC) reviewed the form that is shared with parents when students have general proficiency of level 4 on ELPAC, and the teacher assesses that the student has had a “C” or better in their English class in the last two out of three semesters.
